Mr. Turvin,

My name is Ben Medina and I am local actor and a cast member of Miss Saigon at the Broadway Palm West. I am emailing you, because I feel that the rebuttle made by Patrick O'Herron to your review poorly misrepresented our cast and the feeling about the production from within the cast.

I can't apologize for his comments or for his attacks on you and on the Broadway Palm West, but I can certainly say that a lot of us in the cast didn't agree with or even know about the "shop talk" he mentioned in his arguments. Most of us just grateful to be in the production and to have the opportunity to provide something out of the average for local theatre. I'm not sure where Mr O'Herron was trained, but in my recently blooming career I already know to be grateful to be a working actor at all.

I just wanted to let you know how I was personally affected by another persons poor decision.

Take Care!!

Ben Medina
