Mark,

I've never seen a more "shoot yourself in the foot, while it's in your mouth" moment in all my life. Who the hell does this guy think he is? I hope he's doing well enough in NYC, because he'll probably never act in Arizona again. He gets all offending because his poor ego is shot, when in reality your review are mainly read by actors and technicians and not the general theatre going public, (which is unfortunate, because your reviews are informative and accurate). Little did he know that his scathing letter to you was going to be read by all the people he belittled. Just thought I'd give my two cents on the matter.

Regards,

Peter J. Good
